Port Hawkesbury Terminal
STRAIT OF CANSO, NOVA SCOTIA

LOGISTEC

The Port Hawkesbury Paper dock is located on the north (Cape Breton) shore of the Strait of Canso, within the town of Port Hawkesbury, Nova Scotia. It sits on a 170 m wharf extending into the deep, ice-free waters of this strategic strait—about 27 km long and up to 3 km wide—which separates Cape Breton Island from mainland Nova Scotia. The dock provides an 9.7 m depth berth for loading clay and other goods and is part of the industrial harbor facilities on the eastern shore of the strait near Port Hawkesbury's town center.
